

VOICES BOOK SERIES

Women Braving It All To Live Their Purpose

Presented by Author Chloe Rachel Gallaway

Have you been dreaming of finding your voice and making an impact?

Are you someone who aspires to be bold with your life?

Have you overcome obstacles in the journey to walk your own path and now feel you are living your purpose?

If yes, the VOICES Intuitive Writing Program and Book Series may be for you.

I'm Chloe Rachel Gallaway, author of The Soulful Child: Twelve Years In The Wilderness, and Intuitive Writing Coach. Ten years ago I set out to tell the true story of my growing up in the wilderness and coming into the world at age twelve. I spent the last ten years understanding what it means to be bold, take risks, and walk my own path in becoming a writer and then further fulfilling my calling in becoming a writing coach. Today I teach my students the dance between craft and intuition that has led me to my true gifts. I've learned how to build a platform and make a life from those gifts, sharing the secrets I've learned along the way and holding writers' hands along the path of making an impact with their voice.

Along this journey I have met many strong, brave, and spiritual women who are facing fear, taking risks, and making strides to walk their own road toward living their purpose. My dream is to create a book that captures these invaluable stories and the lessons they offer to both the author and the reader.

VOICES OF WOMEN

The, VOICES Intuitive Writing Program and Book Series is the start of this dream.

I'm looking for 9 women who are aligned to this project. First, we will interview to discover if there is alignment for both of us. Each book will feature 10 VOICES. I will be writing along with you as the 10th woman. I'd love to share what this package is about, so stay with me if this opportunity sounds like it was made for you!

BECOME A PUBLISHED AUTHOR

Part IV: Publishing of VOICES

By this phase, the editing process will have prepared your VOICES story inclusion in a professionally published book. You will experience the exact process of having your work published in a book, seeing it through the phases of layout and proofreading into print. You will retain 100% of the copyright in your story. You would be giving me, as the editor of the VOICES Series, the first right of publication and a one-time right to publish your story in Book 1 of the VOICES Series, print and ebook editions. Similar to other famous compilation books, the contributors do not receive royalties; however, you will receive 10 copies of the book as consideration, copies which you are free to give away or resell. Your status as a VOICES author will give you access to purchase at a wholesale discount any additional copies that you may need for book talks and signings. The book will be available for sale on Amazon.com, BN.com and other online retailers. Citrine Publishing and I will support you with various social media and email marketing templates to help us co-promote the book—knowing that each sale leads to the possibility of more and more people finding inspiration through you through your story.

STEP FULLY INTO LIVING YOUR PURPOSE

Part V: The Continuing Journey

The story of you finding your voice and owning your purpose will now be shared with the world!

If you have a larger book in you to write, this program can be a great stepping-stone to tell the fundamental story of your journey that “your people” will want to hear. You can hint at tidbits of the larger story to help them connect to your bigger book that is coming.

And if you’re not planning to write a book, VOICES is a great opportunity to tell this invaluable piece of your story that will speak directly to your people and become known as someone who has blazed the trail forward in your area of interest or field of expertise.

Launching a book with a known author, a skilled and versed publisher, and A powerful group of women is priceless!

This project is for you if:

- ❖ You have been looking to get your message out
- ❖ You crave the empowerment and accomplishment of sharing your own story
- ❖ You desire to lead others with your gifts and purpose
- ❖ You understand the great value in investing in yourself when it’s aligned

- ❖ You have it in you to be brave, bold, and take risks to live your purpose
- ❖ You want to truly understand the power in owning your voice
- ❖ You are wanting to build a platform and get more visible with what you do

Q&A

- ❖ Do I have to be a writer already?

You don't have to be a writer to do this project, but must have a desire to learn to write. With my gifts, I will help you unearth your story.

- ❖ How far into "living my purpose" do I have to be?

You don't have to be completely at the top of your game, living your purpose. All authors will be a different phases of the journey. The only requirement is that you must be doing that thing which you love and consider it your calling.

- ❖ Can I really do this?

Being brave does not mean we do not have fear. Facing the fear is part of braving it all, but there are ups and downs with this process. Together we will learn more about facing fear and braving it all to live our purpose.

If your feeling aligned to all of these and you feel this package is for you, I'd love to set up an interview to go over complete details and determine if the alignment is present for the both of us.
